Plexus Law Opens New Office in the Heart of Manchester

Plexus Law, part of the Parabis Group, is delighted to announce that it has recruited three new Partners, Chris Gough, Tim Short and Louise Shaw facilitating the creation of a new practice located in the heart of Manchester City Centre. All three new Partners will be joining the Firm from Halliwells.

The new office provides Plexus with the opportunity to serve the rapidly growing needs of clients in the North of England and is the latest in a series of steps taken by Plexus to build on the Firm's unprecedented growth and success over the last five years.

The opening of an office in Manchester will enable the Firm to recruit more talented people, with plans to expand the team by an additional 18 lawyers over the coming months, in order to provide the high quality of service and personal attention clients have come to expect.

Commenting on the appointments and office opening Andrew McDougall, Senior Partner at Plexus Law said:

"We are delighted to welcome Chris, Tim and Louise to Plexus they are highly skilled lawyers and will be a huge asset to the Firm. We look forward to working with them to build our practice in Manchester".

“The creation of a new practice in the North West working alongside our already highly successful teams in London, Leeds, Croydon and Colchester highlights our commitment to providing excellent personal service and a fully comprehensive range of legal services to clients across the insurance industry. These are exciting times for Plexus, we have ambitious plans for the future growth of the firm and our goal of becoming the UK’s leading specialist insurance litigation practice is ever closer”.

Chris Gough commented:

“Tim, Louise and myself are delighted to be joining Plexus and look forward to building a significant and highly successful practice in Manchester. Plexus is an innovative, forward thinking and rapidly growing firm and all of us feel that in choosing Plexus we are ensuring we have challenging and rewarding future careers ”.
