Plexus Law Announces Acquisition of Squire & Co

Plexus Law, part of the Parabis Group, today announced that it has acquired London based defendant insurance litigation practice Squire & Co under a definitive agreement effective from 1st September 2009.

The acquisition underlines Plexus' ongoing commitment to growth and desire to build an unrivalled team of leading lawyers delivering cutting edge service capability to the insurance market. Clients from both firms will benefit from an even greater depth of skills and resource.

Under the terms of the agreement the majority of Partners from Squire & Co will join Plexus. Tim Oliver will remain as Managing Partner.

Commenting on the merger Tim Oliver, Managing Partner at Plexus Law said:

"This acquisition is yet another exciting milestone in our stated plan to become the UK's leading specialist professional indemnity and large loss legal practice. Squire & Co's talent, reputation and client base complement our own allowing us to enhance further our service offering and deliver innovative service to clients in what is a challenging and rapidly evolving marketplace. We look forward to welcoming the Squire & Co team and working with them to ensure a seamless transition for both staff and clients"

Nick Squire, Senior Partner at Squire & Co said:

“Squire & Co has a strong reputation in the insurance & reinsurance market with specialist lawyers handling professional indemnity, construction, D&O, Property, Casualty and Financial Services litigation. We are delighted with the chance to become part of Plexus law, an ideal strategic fit that will continue to provide our clients with a service that is second to none”.
