

Personal Injury

Plexus Law are market leaders in defending personal injury claims from fast track to catastrophic loss and specialist injury cases. Whether dealing with simple slip and trip incidents, or multi-claimant financial loss, our priority is always to provide an effective resolution to every claim.

The complex nature of these cases requires the skills of highly experienced professionals. The Plexus team are highly ranked by the Legal 500, Chambers and Legal Experts directories and have a reputation for consistently delivering a sensible and constructive approach and bringing a personal touch to the successful handling of claims in this arena.

"...keen to praise the firm's sensible, constructive approach and its ability to handle large groundbreaking claims in addition to fast-track and volume matters".

(Legal 500)

"...a 'well-known player' valued for its in-depth knowledge of the personal injury landscape and its commitment to an impressive rosta of clients". (Chambers)

Employers' & Public Liability

Leaders in the field, Plexus has been providing litigation services in the employers' and public liability market since the 1980's. The team of specialist lawyers advise on all aspects of EL/PL cases from low value slip and trip claims through to occupational disease and high value catastrophic injury cases, tailoring our service to meet individual client needs.

The team are highly skilled in early assessment of liability and delivery of sound commercial advice and accurate reserving at all stages throughout the lifecycle of a claim.

Motor Injury

Plexus are market leaders in the handling of motor injury claims ranging from routine AD matters through to complex high value personal injury claims. We have specialist teams with expertise in handling claims from the emergency services and other sector specific claims. With a sophisticated Case Management System we are able to provide access to a transparent and cost effective system, which can be accessed online.

We have a comprehensive fraud service that includes access to a number of anti fraud databases. Our dedicated team is able to offer a service providing data only information through to a complete file review and taking a case all the way to trial, always with a view to containing costs. Plexus was recently involved in a landmark contempt of court case, Kirk v Walton. This saw the Claimant, in a personal injury action, fined £2,500 and ordered to pay 50% of the Defendant's insurer's costs of the contempt action as a result of claiming damages to which she knew she was not entitled in the civil claim. We are always looking to prosecute where there is clear evidence of fraud.

Specialist services include: Litigation, Rehabilitation – online services for routine whiplash injuries, Fraud Service – including access to anti fraud database, Uninsured Loss Recoveries and Defending motor prosecutions.
